From: Carmony, Jay (ECY)
To: Jennings, Jonathan (ECY);
Subject: Mosquito Control Permit Comments
Date: Thursday, February 04, 2010 11:20:06 AM

Hello

Did anyone look at natural oils control of the larva? I am very wary about aerial applications of anything – and DO NOT support tax payer money supporting chemical use.

I truly hope the IPM is the focus of the field technicians – I have worked with those folks before and chemicals are a first choice not a last resort... Are there ramification to pesticide applicator that break laws under these control programs? No one seems to be watching...

Thanks for your time and consideration,

Jay L. Carmony Smoke Management Specialist
Washington State Department of Ecology
Central Regional Office
509.454-7660 telephone
509.575-2809 fax