

Aerial Photo With Area Depictions

The small circle contained within the largest circle is the site or area of contamination. The largest circle represents the 500-foot radius around the site.

The other labeled circles depict various areas of land to assist you in judging the area of undeveloped land within the 500-foot radius.