

The Department of Ecology's Response to:
Peg Wendling – City of Bellingham (Comment 38)

Due to its size, Lake Whatcom is depicted using grid cells. The TMDL study shows that regardless of the location of excess phosphorus inputs it has an adverse affect on dissolved oxygen levels.