

The Yakima area is especially prone to high PM levels

A close association between PM_{2.5} levels and hospitalization for respiratory illnesses is evident

