

Status and Trends Proposal Workshop #4

Analytical Products & Status Reports

Natural Resources Building, Room 172
Olympia, WA
9am-3pm, January 5, 2006

9:00 Introduction

9:15 Workshop Expectations & Agenda Review

Orientation (Concepts, past and current status reports, data availability/needs)

9:20 Presentations

1. State of the Salmon Report
2. NOAA-Fisheries: Limiting Factors
3. Conservation Commission: Limiting Factors Analysis

10:45 Break

11:00 Workgroup Discussion (plus break for lunch)

- a. Disposition and availability of data to generate “key” indicator information.
  - Sets of “indicators” used in status reports
  - Generation of data to meet demands for new status reports
- b. Structure and content of summary reports
  - Reporting elements for current status evaluations (e.g., limiting factors)
  - Similarity of status report content
- c. Transfer of information to existing status/trend reports
  - Previous methods used to combine disparate data in status reports
  - Success achieved in merging data from several sources

2:30 Visualizing the Monitoring Product

- a. Essential elements of a unified report
- b. Organization of a report that can serve several monitoring objectives

3:00 Adjourn