Purchase critical and intact habitat areas outright, purchase easements, or protect through land use regulations.

Assessment of Potential, Prepared by the Snohomish County Development Services, review process. Use designations will be made in the future for parcels and parcels containing key habitat features. The map is a graphic representation of the Snohomish County Shoreline Management Program and is intended for planning purposes only. It does not represent survey data or the County's GIS products does so at his or her own risk. All critical and intact habitat areas identified on the map are subject to change due to land use and development. The use of this map is at the user's own risk. The County is not responsible for its interpretation or use. Any user relying on any of the information arising from any use of this map for any purpose, including but not limited to, determination of future land use or making any decisions, will do so at his or her own risk. All critical and intact habitat areas identified on the map are subject to change due to land use and development. The County is not responsible for its interpretation or use. Any user relying on any of the information arising from any use of this map for any purpose, including but not limited to, determination of future land use or making any decisions, will do so at his or her own risk.