This figure depicts potential opportunities for restoration that have been identified by a variety of sources for shorelines in the City of Sumner. Restoration opportunities shown on private properties are shown only to provide the public an awareness of where restoration activities may be occurring and do not represent the endorsement of property owners, tribes, state, and federal agencies.