
Legend

Possible Spill Area (Possible Source)

1. Industrial Process Areas - Machinery and operations in production areas of plant and warehouses which include: Furnace buildings, hot end and cold end lines, plasti-shield area and maintenance shop.
2. Degreasing Operations Sources include non-hazardous degreasing agents, detergents, and sodium hydroxide solutions.
3. Inventory Storage Areas - Stored items include sodium hydroxide for degreasing and motor oil in the storeroom; batch materials in the batch silos; batch materials in the Quonset hut; and lubrication oil and mold dope in the mold dope storage room.
4. Inventory Usage Area Inventory usage areas include the hot end, cold end, batch house, #4 oil house, mold dope storage room, forklift shop, and maintenance area. The hot end uses hot end coatings, lubricants, and dimethyl ethane; the cold end uses adhesives; the batch house uses batch materials, the #4 oil house contains hydraulic oil; the mold dope storage room is used to dispense mold dopes and other oils; the fork lift repair shop uses motor oil, anti freeze, hydraulic oil, and transmission oil.

ecology and environment, inc.
International Specialists in the Environment
Seattle, Washington

Base Map Reference: Conestoga-Rovers & Associates (CRA), 2006a.

LOWER DUWAMISH WATERWAY
RM 1.2-1.7 EAST
Tukwila, Washington

Figure 9
SAINT GOBAIN AREAS OF INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITY

Date:	Drawn by:
2/17/09	AES	10:002330WD1404\fig 9