

Documents Reviewed:

[1] Municipality of Metropolitan Seattle. 1970a. Memorandum from D.A. Hilderbrand to Tom Rice, G.D. Farris, and A.L. Poole. RE: North Coast Chemical Company. November 24, 1970 or November 25, 1970.

[2] Municipality of Metropolitan Seattle. 1970b. Memorandum from D.A. Hilderbrand to Tom Rice, G.D. Farris, and A.L. Poole. RE: North Coast Chemical Company Tour of Plant Facilities. November 7, 1970 or December 11, 1970.

[3] Municipality of Metropolitan Seattle. 1977a. Industrial Waste Discharge Permit Application Form. March 15, 1977.

[4] Municipality of Metropolitan Seattle. 1977b. Letter from Larry Peterson, Metro, to Marv Adams, North Coast Chemical Company, RE: Stormwater samples. September 9, 1977.

[5] Ecology and Environment, Inc. 1987a. EPA Site Inspection Form 2070-13 for North Coast Chemical Company, Seattle, Washington. Submitted to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region X. July 24, 1987.

[6] Ecology and Environment, Inc. 1987b. Site Inspection Report for North Coast Chemical Company, Seattle, Washington. Submitted to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region X. October 1987.

[7] Ecology and Environment, Inc. 1987c. Trip Report, North Coast Chemical Company, Seattle, Washington. Submitted to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region X. October 2, 1987.

[8] U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. 1987. Letter from William Glasser, USEPA, to George Knudsen, North Coast Chemical Company. RE: Ecology and Environment site inspection report. October 30, 1987.

[9] Farallon Consulting. 2000. Subsurface Investigation Report, Former North Coast Chemical Site, 6300-17th Avenue South, Seattle, Washington. Prepared for M-Chem International, NOVAS Capital Corp. April 13, 2000.

[10] Hart Crowser. 2001. Final Brownfields Showcase Technology Screening Study, Duwamish Industrial Area, Seattle, WA. Prepared for U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Seattle District. August 2001.

[11] Farallon Consulting. 2004a. Request for Removal from the UST Program and Transfer to the Toxics Cleanup Program, Former North Coast Chemical Company Site, Seattle, Washington. Letter from J. Kaspar and C.T. Schmitt, Farallon Consulting, LLC, to D. Wells, Washington Department of Ecology, Southwestern Regional Office. March 19, 2004.

[12] Farallon Consulting. 2004b. Technical Memorandum: Product Assessment for Romix Chemical & Brush, Inc., RO-396 Release Agent RTU, North Coast Land Corporation, Former North Coast Chemical Company. From J. Kaspar, Farallon Consulting, LLC, to S. Becker, Washington State Department of Ecology. June 15, 2004.

[13] Farallon Consulting. 2004c. Groundwater Monitoring Summary Report for June 2000 through October 2003. Former North Coast Chemical Company Site. Prepared for North Coast Land Corporation. June 17, 2004.

[14] Farallon Consulting. 2005a. Scope of Work for Interim Remedial Action, Central Source Area Treatment, Former North Coast Chemical Company Site, Seattle, WA. Letter from J. Kaspar and C.T. Schmitt, Farallon Consulting, LLC, to K. Hallat, North Coast Land Corporation. August 2, 2005.

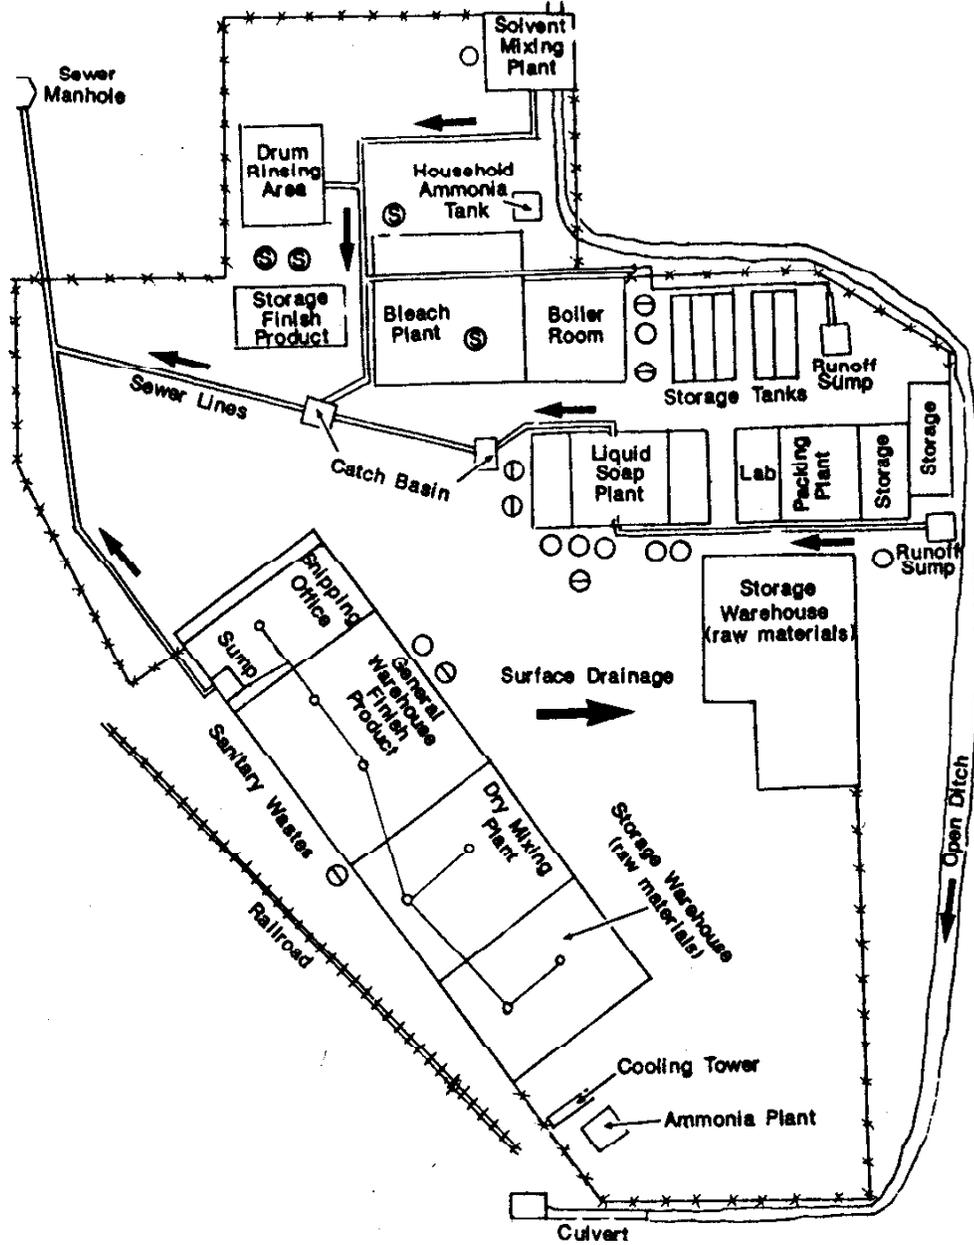

[15] Farallon Consulting. 2005b. Interim Remedial Action Report, Former North Coast Chemical Company Site, 6300-17th Avenue South, Seattle, Washington. Prepared for North Coast Land Corporation. August 2, 2005.

[16] Farallon Consulting. 2005c. Focused Feasibility Study Report, Former North Coast Chemical. Prepared for North Coast Land Corporation. August 2, 2005.

Figure 1
Site Location: Former North Coast Chemical Company

Figure 2: Former North Coast Chemical Company
Historic Site Features

0 50 100 200
scale in feet

LEGEND

- ← Flow
- Tank
- ⊙ Former solvent tank
- ⊖ Unused tank
- ✂ Fence

Source: North Coast Chemical Company

ecology & environment, inc.
Job: F10-8707-00	Waste Site: WA 0278
Drawn by: B.T.	Date: 9/22/1987

FIGURE 1
SITE MAP
NORTH COAST CHEMICAL CO.
Seattle, WA