
From: marilyn and Ernie karlstrom [ernmarkarl@rainierconnect.com]
Sent: Friday, October 26, 2012 7:07 PM
To: Hamel, Kathy (ECY)
Subject: Japanese eelgrass

A retired marine biologist here. I am trying to ferret out what the deal is on the invasive eelgrass and use of pesticides. If the invasive species fills a similar important niche to native Zostera, why the permit for use of amazamox? The use of any pesticides on our beaches has to be viewed with utmost caution. Please advise.

Ernest Karlstrom, PhD.