

MAR 10 2010

WATER QUALITY PROGRAM

WASHINGTON STATE DEPT. OF ECOLOGY:

We are concerned about the possible regulations concerning the use of spray for mosquito control. The mosquito problem is quite severe in the south Kennewick area, mainly because of standing water and irrigation ditches. To protect the safety of the public against West Nile and encephalomyelitis the use of pesticides should be used. Mosquitoes are a nuisance and health risk to people living in this area.

THANK YOU

BOB CHRISTENSEN
SYLIA CHRISTENSEN
31104 S. CARLSON RD.
KENNEWICK, WASHINGTON 99337

C# 366