

Water Quality Standards – Delegates’ Table

June 24, 2013, 9:30 AM–2:10 PM; Lacey Community Center

Objectives

- Introductions; develop a common orientation and approach to the work of Delegates’ Table
- Develop a framework for Delegate Table discussions and inventory of issues to address
- Record Delegates’ views on issues related to the scope of surface water quality standards and relative source contribution

Agenda

- 9:30-9:50 AM Welcome and Opening (20 minutes)
- Introductions
 - What we plan to accomplish today
- 9:50-10:20 Delegates Table Charter and Ground Rules (30 minutes)
- Relationship to other groups
 - Reaching out to constituencies
 - Ground rules and meeting approach
- 10:20-11:50 Framework for Delegate Table Discussion and Options Identified to Date (90 minutes)
- Framework: Criteria setting (including fish consumption rate), implications for listings, implementation approaches
 - Options identified to date
 - Drill down into details on CWA scope and relative source contribution
 - CWA Scope: Slide 12 of this presentation
 - Relative Source Contribution: Slide 86 of this presentation
 - Discussion
- (We will take a 10 minute break as needed during this discussion)*
- 11:50-12:00 PM Opportunity for public comment (10 minutes)
- 12:00-12:40 Break for lunch – please bring something back (40 minutes)
- (We have the option of ordering lunch and having it brought in, please bring cash if you’d like to order lunch)*
- 12:40-1:40 Framework Discussion – continued (1 hour)
- Continued discussion
 - Summarize take-aways/perspectives/agreements (if any)/remaining issues
- 1:40-1:50 Opportunity for public comment (10 minutes)
- 1:50-2:10 Wrap up
- Issues for next meeting
 - Homework
- 2:10 Adjourn Delegates Table

*If you wish to offer comments, please sign up. Commenters will have approximately two minutes each to offer comments or, if there are numerous commenters, the available time will be divided evenly. Additional opportunities for public comment are available at the policy forum meetings.