

Lincoln County Conservation District

Passive Rehydration ($925,000)

The funding will study the feasibility of rehydrating aquifers in Lincoln and Adams counties. The study will look at diverting water into dry stream to facilitate percolation into the aquifers for storage until needed.