

WA State University

Spokane Valley-Rathdrum Prairie ($250,000)

Funding is granted for a analysis of the viability of aquifer storage and recovery in the Spokane Valley-Rathdrum Prairie (SVRP) aquifer. The project will assess whether water diverted from the Spokane River or Lake Pend Oreille during high flow periods can be injected into the SVRP aquifer and gravity drain back to the Columbia River.

